

The Kentucky Gazette

2025-2026 PLANNING CALENDAR

Readers of The Kentucky Gazette represent an elite segment of the commonwealth's decision-makers and opinion-leaders. Messages and content in The Kentucky Gazette reach the top levels of Kentucky's government, civic leadership, and business c-suites, including elected and appointed officials in all three branches of state and local government, lobbyists, education officials at the state and university levels, campaign consultants and staff, members of the media, and business and labor leaders.

The Kentucky Gazette provides state leaders with information they need and want.

REGULAR COLUMNS: Capital Avenue summarizes lobbying activities; To the Point highlights executive appointments and awards; Personal Services Contracts; Kentucky News Briefs; Attorney General's Opinions
